Kelsea Litter Temperament Overview:

The Kelsea litter is an exceptionally sweet, gentle, affectionate, curious, and well-balanced group. These puppies are naturally social and people-oriented, with a genuine desire for connection and companionship. Across the litter, they show a beautiful combination of soft, affectionate temperaments and comfortable social confidence.

One of the strongest qualities throughout this litter is their human engagement. They enjoy being with people, respond readily to interaction, and tend to seek connection rather than choosing to remain completely independent. They are also generally tolerant and respectful during handling, giving the litter an especially pleasant, companion-oriented temperament.

Energy is remarkably consistent across the group, with the litter presenting at a true mid level across the board. Some become more animated and playful when actively engaging with people, while others remain more even throughout, but overall they offer a very manageable balance of playfulness and the ability to settle.

There is also very nice service and therapy potential throughout the litter, with several puppies showing especially promising combinations of engagement, confidence, tolerance, affection, and people focus. Individual working potential varies, but the litter as a whole offers many of the qualities we look for when considering continued service or therapy development.

Overall, these puppies have wonderful “jack-of-all-trades” potential. Their balanced energy, gentle social nature, affection, curiosity, and adaptability give them the versatility to fit beautifully into a wide variety of family environments, with individual matching helping determine which puppy is the very best fit for each home.

Meet The Parents

Kelsea x Captain — Parent Overview

Kelsea is such a sweet girl. She is cuddly, reserved, and deeply affectionate, with a gentle nature that makes her impossible not to love. While she may be a little bashful when meeting someone new, give her just five minutes to get to know you and you'll have a best friend for life. Kelsea is motivated by interaction above all else and is truly a gentle giant who thrives on forming close, meaningful bonds with her people.

Breed: F1 Goldendoodle

Weight: 64lbs

Captain is affectionate, self-assured, and outgoing, bringing a wonderfully balanced temperament to everything he does. He approaches new experiences with confidence and is always eager to engage with the people around him. His steady, people-oriented nature and enthusiasm for interaction make him an exceptional companion.

Breed: Moyen Poodle

Weight: 32lbs

Together, Kelsea and Captain are expected to produce puppies that beautifully blend the best qualities of both parents. We anticipate exceptionally sweet, affectionate, and engaging puppies that inherit their mother's loving, people-focused nature while carrying their father's confidence and self-assurance. With balanced, mid-level energy and an exceptional desire to connect with people, this litter should produce outstanding therapy candidates and devoted companions for families looking for a deeply affectionate, people-oriented puppy.
