Zayda x Jamison — Parent Overview

Zayda is the prime example of a Smeraglia Doodle. She is sweet, self-assured, outgoing, and full of personality, with a wonderfully balanced and engaging demeanor. Zayda carries an average energy level and an exceptional desire to please, making her the kind of dog that naturally forms strong bonds and thrives on interacting with her people.

Breed: F1 Goldendoodle

Weight: 57lbs

Jamison shares many of the same qualities. He is outgoing, confident, and affectionate, approaching everything he does with enthusiasm and heart. Whether he's romping around, playing, or engaging with people, Jamison throws himself into every moment with genuine excitement, making him an incredibly fun and rewarding companion.

Breed: Standard Poodle

Weight: 64lbs

Together, Zayda and Jamison are expected to produce puppies that will become the heart of whatever home they join. We anticipate outgoing, engaging, sweet, affectionate, and confident puppies with balanced, mid-level energy that is well suited for a wide variety of families. With their people-oriented temperaments, eagerness to interact, and natural confidence, this litter should produce wonderful companions that are as enjoyable to live with as they are to love.
