

Lydia Girls Temperament Assessment

Lydia Girls Play Video

Date of Birth: 6/26/2026

Lydia Litter Temperament Overview:

The Lydia litter is a sweet, curious, playful, and well-balanced group with a wonderful combination of their parents' qualities. Overall, these puppies are personable and affectionate, with gentle temperaments and fun, silly sides that come through as they become comfortable and engaged. They show nice tolerance with handling and are generally easygoing puppies who should transition well into family life.

Energy across the litter is primarily mid level, with some puppies becoming more animated during interaction while still showing the ability to settle. There are several nice early therapy and/or service indicators within the litter, particularly among the puppies who show stronger people focus and engagement. Overall, these intelligent puppies should be wonderful fits for homes looking for an interactive, affectionate companion.

Lydia Pink

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid Level

- Personality:

Lydia Pink is a sweet, playful, happy, and curious girl with a beautifully balanced overall temperament. She may need a brief moment to take in a new situation, but she shows nice underlying confidence and is not pushy in her approach.

She has a slight preference toward people while still maintaining healthy independence, giving her a lovely balance between enjoying connection and being comfortable without needing constant attention. She also shows great tolerance with handling, remaining gentle, respectful, and easy to work with.

Lydia Pink shows nice early potential for therapy or emotional support work. Her gentle disposition, handling tolerance, balanced nature, and ability to connect without being overly dependent are all qualities that could lend themselves nicely to a supportive companion role as she continues to mature.

Her energy is a true mid level through and through and was not easily roused during her evaluation. Overall, Lydia Pink is a well-balanced, gentle, adaptable girl with a sweet disposition and promising qualities for a family looking for an affectionate companion with therapy or ESA potential.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Lydia Red

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid Level, Excites to Moderate

- Personality:

Lydia Red is a confident, social, curious, and engaging girl with a very well-balanced temperament.

She approaches new experiences with nice self-assurance without being pushy and shows a slight preference toward her people while still maintaining healthy independence.

She has great tolerance with handling and is gentle and respectful when being worked with. Her social, curious nature gives her a little extra spark during interaction, while her overall temperament remains balanced and manageable.

Lydia Red shows nice early potential for therapy or emotional support work. Her confidence, social nature, handling tolerance, and ability to engage with people while remaining balanced are all encouraging qualities for a puppy who may grow into a wonderful supportive companion.

Her baseline energy is mid level and can rise into the moderate range with interaction. Overall, Lydia Red is a sweet, confident, adaptable girl with a lovely balance of engagement and independence, along with promising early qualities for therapy or ESA work.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

MEET THE PARENTS!

Meet The Parents

Lydia x Gavin — Parent Overview

Lydia is a sweet, reserved, and wonderfully cuddly girl. She is about as gentle as they come, carrying a quiet, soft-natured presence that makes her happiest when she's melting into your lap. Once she knows and trusts you, Lydia's delightfully silly side begins to shine through, making her even more endearing and impossible not to love.

Breed: F1 Goldendoodle

Weight: 28lbs

Gavin is every bit as lovable, but for entirely different reasons. He is hysterical, playful, affectionate, and an absolute weirdo in the very best way. Gavin loves being included in everything and is just as happy perched up on a wall observing the world as he is joining in the fun. His carefree, goofy personality and constant ability to make people laugh have made him a true fan favorite among the staff.

Breed: Moyen Poodle

Weight: 17.8lbs

Together, Lydia and Gavin are expected to produce puppies that beautifully balance the best of both parents. We anticipate sweet, affectionate, and cuddly puppies who love quiet moments of connection, while also being goofy, playful, silly, and full of personality when it's time for fun. With mid to moderate energy levels that settle nicely for handling, this litter should produce adaptable, engaging companions that will thrive in a wide variety of home environments.