Marnie x Butter — Parent Overview

Marnie is a sweet and charming girl with a naturally gentle approach to both affection and play. She is very people-oriented and is motivated by interaction above all else, while still showing very good interest in food and toys. Marnie brings a soft, engaging presence and a wonderful sense of balance to everything she does.

Breed: F1 Goldendoodle

Weight: 47lbs

Butter is a gentle and confident boy with an affectionate, easygoing nature. He enjoys playtime and certainly has his spurts of energy, but if given the choice, he would almost always prefer to be in your arms. His confidence paired with his love for affection makes him a wonderfully steady and connected companion.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 11lbs

Together, Marnie and Butter are expected to produce puppies that closely reflect their parents—sweet, gentle, affectionate, and beautifully balanced in their interactions. We anticipate strong people-oriented motivation, with enough interest in play, food, and exploration to keep them nicely well-rounded. Energy levels should remain consistently mid-level, making this litter a wonderful fit for homes looking for a steady, loving, and deeply connected companion.
