Date of Birth: 7/6/2026

Zayda Litter Temperament Overview:

The Zayda litter is an exceptionally well-balanced, confident, curious, playful, and social group. These puppies are naturally personable and engaging, often tripping over themselves for interaction, while still showing a healthy balance of independence.

Across the litter, they demonstrated very good tolerance with handling, comfortable human engagement, and sweet, affectionate dispositions. Some are more immediately people-focused and interactive, while others take a brief moment to settle before showing their personalities, but overall this is a happy, adaptable, and well-rounded group.

Energy across the litter is primarily mid level, with some puppies becoming more animated with interaction while still remaining manageable and responsive. Their balanced temperaments should allow them to transition well into a variety of home environments.

Several puppies within this litter also demonstrated potential for future service, therapy, and/or emotional support work, with individual potential noted within each puppy's temperament evaluation.

Overall, these are sweet, confident, affectionate, engaging, and versatile puppies who should make wonderful companions for a wide variety of families and lifestyles.
