

Faryn Girls Temperament Assessment

Faryn Girls Play Video

Date of Birth: 8/20/2026

Faryn Litter Temperament Overview:

Faryn and Reuben bring together a really lovely combination of sweetness, affection, connection, and balance. Faryn is gentle and personable, with a playful, affectionate side that comes forward once she is comfortable. Reuben brings that same people-loving nature with a calm, steady disposition—he enjoys training, walks, and play, but is equally happy settling in close for plenty of couch time and affection.

Their puppies are developing into a curious, social, personable, happy, and beautifully balanced group. They are gentle and engaging with their people while still showing enough independence to be comfortable in everyday life. Overall, this litter has a very easygoing quality and should transition nicely into a wide variety of family environments.

Energy is generally mid level, with some puppies showing a little more animation during play and interaction before settling nicely for handling. Their combination of engagement, social nature, and balanced temperaments gives them a wonderful foundation for companionship, with continued maturity expected to bring even more of their individual personalities forward.

These puppies are Small by generation with both Small and XS weights expected within the litter.

Faryn Pink

Santa's Little Prep Student: 9-Week Doodle Prep School

Prep School Dates: Oct 22nd - Dec 24th 2026 (9wk)

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate — Engaging with a Nice Settle

- Personality:

Faryn Pink is a happy, affectionate, cuddly, personable, and gentle girl with a wonderfully people-oriented personality. She is confident without being pushy and genuinely enjoys connection, actively seeking out attention and affection from those around her.

Pink has a balanced level of independence while still showing good engagement with her people. She is social and interactive without presenting as overly dependent, giving her a lovely combination of companionship and everyday balance. She was also tolerant during handling and showed that she can settle nicely once the interaction becomes calmer.

Her energy sits in the mid-to-moderate range, rising naturally when she is excited about attention, play, or interaction and settling again for handling. That gives her plenty of personality and enthusiasm without losing the balanced quality seen throughout this litter.

Pink should transition beautifully into a wide variety of homes. Her 9-Week Doodle Prep School program will provide an excellent head start with training, structure, socialization, everyday manners, and the foundational skills that help a young puppy transition successfully into family life.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Faryn Red

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate — Calms for Handling

- Personality:

Faryn Red is a sweet, gentle, personable, and engaging girl with a balanced temperament and an affectionate underlying nature. She likes to have a brief moment to take in something completely unfamiliar, and once she has settled into the situation, her happy, social, and curious personality comes forward.

Red has a balanced level of independence along with good engagement with people. She enjoys connection without requiring constant attention and was tolerant during handling, showing a receptive and gentle nature once comfortable.

Her energy is mid to moderate and settles nicely for handling, giving her a versatile balance between play and relaxation. She has plenty of room for fun, walks, activities, and interaction while still showing the ability to enjoy quieter time with her family.

Red should do well in a wide variety of homes. A family that allows her a brief moment to acclimate to brand-new situations will be able to enjoy the personable, happy, gentle, and engaging puppy underneath. Her balanced nature gives her a lovely foundation for everyday companionship.

- Physical Evaluation:

Red has a kinked tail. This is a physical characteristic noted during her evaluation.

Meet The Parents

Faryn x Reuben — Parent Overview

Faryn has a wonderfully sweet disposition. She can be a little reserved when first meeting someone new, but once she has a chance to get to know you, her personality truly shines. She becomes playful, affectionate, and incredibly eager to please, forming strong connections with her people and genuinely enjoying their interaction and attention.

Breed: F1B Goldendoodle

Weight: 15lbs

Reuben is a stately gentleman with a wonderful balance between engagement and relaxation. He enjoys training and working and is always happy to play, romp, or head out for a nice long walk or jog, but afterward, he is more than ready for some well-earned couch time. Reuben is the kind of Poodle who leans into hugs and somehow always manages to make you feel like you haven't cuddled with him nearly enough that day.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 16lbs

Together, Faryn and Reuben are expected to produce puppies that are every bit as wonderful as their parents. We anticipate sweet, engaging, personable, and self-assured puppies with a strong desire to connect with their people. Their people-focused nature, eagerness to engage, and balanced dispositions should create excellent potential for service and therapy work. Expect mid-level energy that naturally rises with interaction, creating puppies that are happy to participate when it's time for activity while still enjoying plenty of affection and downtime with their families.
