Date of Birth: 7/15/2026

Janelle Litter Temperament Overview:

The Janelle litter is an exceptionally gentle, easygoing, tolerant, sweet, and people-oriented group. These puppies are naturally social and affectionate, with a genuine desire for human connection while still maintaining a healthy level of independence.

Throughout the litter, they show very good human engagement and handling tolerance. Many simply need a brief moment to take in something unfamiliar, but once comfortable, they become incredibly sweet, connected, social, and beautifully balanced companions.

Energy is remarkably consistent at a true mid level across the board, giving these puppies a wonderful balance of playfulness, curiosity, and the ability to settle. Their easygoing, adaptable temperaments give them excellent versatility, and they should transition beautifully into nearly any home environment.

There is especially strong therapy and emotional-support potential throughout this litter. Janelle is known not only for producing stunning puppies, but for consistently producing standout, exceptional temperaments, and this litter is a beautiful reflection of that. Their natural people focus, strong human engagement, gentle intuition, tolerance, affection, and balanced energy give these puppies wonderful potential for therapy work and deeply connected companionship. As their confidence continues to develop through maturity and positive experiences, we expect these already-promising qualities to become even stronger.

Overall, this is a sweet, intuitive, companion-driven, and incredibly versatile litter with wonderful “jack-of-all-trades” potential. They are also genetically non-shedding, with coats expected to fade as they mature.

Janelle Blue

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Janelle Blue is a sweet, gentle, social, and beautifully balanced puppy with an easygoing disposition and a natural orientation toward his people. He may need a brief moment to take in a brand-new situation, but once he understands his surroundings, he settles in beautifully and allows his sweet, connected personality to come forward. His evaluation specifically describes him as balanced, even, social, and gentle.

He has a slight people preference and very good human engagement, giving him a naturally companion-oriented temperament without being excessively dependent. He is attentive to the people around him and receptive to connection, which gives him a lovely foundation for becoming an intuitive, relationship-driven companion as that bond develops.

He is also very tolerant with handling. He can carry a little tension initially, which fits with his tendency to need a moment in something unfamiliar, but he remains gentle and tolerant rather than resistant. Once adjusted, he presents as very sweet, balanced, and comfortable with interaction.

His energy is a textbook mid level, giving him a wonderful middle ground between playfulness and the ability to settle. He should adapt well to nearly any home environment, provided he is allowed that brief moment to become comfortable when something is brand-new.

Janelle Blue shows good early therapy and emotional-support potential. His human engagement, gentle temperament, tolerance, people preference, and balanced energy are all valuable qualities for a highly connected companion. His evaluation specifically notes that continued confidence development could bring that potential to an incredible level.

Janelle Green

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Janelle Green is a gentle, curious, playful, social, and people-oriented puppy who becomes increasingly connected once he has had an opportunity to settle into his surroundings. He can be a little tense at the very beginning of something unfamiliar and benefits from being given a moment to process before expecting his full personality to emerge.

Once comfortable, he shows a slight preference for his people and very good human engagement. He enjoys connection and interaction while still maintaining a healthy degree of independence, giving him a nicely balanced companion temperament. His people focus and responsiveness create a strong foundation for becoming increasingly intuitive to his person's routines and needs as their relationship develops.

He is very tolerant during handling, although he can initially carry a little tension. That initial reserve is consistent with the rest of his evaluation rather than intolerance—once he feels secure, he becomes a very sweet, gentle, and balanced puppy.

His energy is a textbook mid level, providing an excellent balance for everyday companionship. He has the curiosity and playfulness to enjoy being involved with his family without presenting as excessively intense or difficult to settle. He should adjust well to nearly any home that gives him that initial opportunity to become comfortable.

Janelle Green shows good early therapy and emotional-support potential. His tolerance, engagement, people preference, gentle disposition, and balanced energy are particularly valuable qualities, and his evaluation notes that continued confidence development could elevate that potential considerably.

- Physical Evaluation:

Puppy has a small umbilical hernia. This is very common at this age and is not a health concern. It will not affect daily life or cause pain, and can be easily corrected at the time of spay or neuter. This has been cleared by our vet.

Janelle Orange

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid — Easygoing & Balanced

- Personality:

Janelle Orange is a very chill, easygoing, curious, social, and tolerant puppy with an especially pleasant companion temperament. He may need a brief moment to take in something new, but once comfortable, he becomes sweet, gentle, and beautifully balanced.

He has a slight people preference paired with very good human engagement, allowing him to enjoy close companionship without presenting as excessively dependent. He is naturally responsive to interaction and connection, and his combination of social interest and easygoing temperament gives him a lovely foundation for becoming an intuitive, relationship-oriented companion.

He is very tolerant with handling. Although he may initially carry a little tension, he remains receptive and gentle rather than resistant, and that tension eases as he becomes comfortable.

His energy is a true textbook mid level, while his naturally chill and easygoing personality gives him an especially manageable presentation. He has enough curiosity and sociability to enjoy participating in family life while still offering a relaxed quality that should translate beautifully into everyday companionship.

Janelle Orange shows good early therapy and emotional-support potential. His easygoing nature, tolerance, people focus, engagement, and gentle disposition provide a promising foundation, with continued confidence-building having the potential to bring even more out of him.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Janelle Blue Dot

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid — Calm & Consistent

- Personality:

Janelle Blue Dot is an easygoing, calm, tolerant, and gentle puppy with a wonderfully manageable overall temperament. He benefits from a brief moment to understand a new environment, but once adjusted, he settles beautifully into a sweet, balanced, and connected companion.

He shows a slight preference for his people and very good human engagement. He enjoys companionship and responds readily to interaction while still maintaining enough independence to remain nicely balanced. This combination gives him a lovely foundation for developing a close, intuitive relationship with his person without needing constant attention.

He is very tolerant with handling. He can initially be a little tense, but remains gentle and receptive throughout and becomes increasingly comfortable once he understands what is being asked of him.

His energy is a textbook mid level, with his naturally calm, easygoing temperament creating an especially balanced presentation. He has enough social interest and playfulness to enjoy participating in everyday life while retaining a pleasant ability to settle.

Janelle Blue Dot shows good early therapy and emotional-support potential. His calm nature, tolerance, human engagement, people preference, and gentle disposition provide a promising foundation, with continued confidence development expected to bring even more of those qualities forward.

Janelle x Maxwell — Parent Overview

Janelle is an outgoing, affectionate, sweet, and incredibly engaging girl who embodies everything we strive for in a Smeraglia Teddybear F1 Goldendoodle. From her beautiful look and exceptional temperament to her service potential and genetically non-shedding coat, she truly is the complete package—and she carries herself like she knows it. Janelle has a wonderful balance of confidence, trainability, and people-focused affection that makes her an outstanding representative of our program.

Breed: F1 Goldendoodle

Weight: 62lbs

Jamison is remarkably similar in all the best ways. He is sweet, affectionate, goofy, playful, and highly engaging, with a deep love for being with his people. Maxwell enjoys just about any activity as long as he gets to share it with someone he loves, and he isn't shy about expressing exactly how he feels when left out. His cheerful personality, devotion to his family, and playful spirit make him an exceptional companion.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 12lbs

Together, Janelle and Maxwell are expected to produce puppies that are every bit as wonderful as their parents. We anticipate sweet, engaging, affectionate, and outgoing puppies with excellent potential for service work and a natural desire to connect with their people. This litter should have balanced, mid-level energy that rises with interaction while remaining easy to settle, making them outstanding companions for families looking for a true partner in everyday life. As an added bonus, these puppies are expected to be genetically non-shedding, making them an excellent choice for families seeking both an incredible temperament and an allergy-friendly coat.
