Date of Birth: 7/15/2026

Janelle Litter Temperament Overview:

The Janelle litter is an exceptionally gentle, easygoing, tolerant, sweet, and people-oriented group. These puppies are naturally social and affectionate, with a genuine desire for human connection while still maintaining a healthy level of independence.

Throughout the litter, they show very good human engagement and handling tolerance. Many simply need a brief moment to take in something unfamiliar, but once comfortable, they become incredibly sweet, connected, social, and beautifully balanced companions.

Energy is remarkably consistent at a true mid level across the board, giving these puppies a wonderful balance of playfulness, curiosity, and the ability to settle. Their easygoing, adaptable temperaments give them excellent versatility, and they should transition beautifully into nearly any home environment.

There is especially strong therapy and emotional-support potential throughout this litter. Janelle is known not only for producing stunning puppies, but for consistently producing standout, exceptional temperaments, and this litter is a beautiful reflection of that. Their natural people focus, strong human engagement, gentle intuition, tolerance, affection, and balanced energy give these puppies wonderful potential for therapy work and deeply connected companionship. As their confidence continues to develop through maturity and positive experiences, we expect these already-promising qualities to become even stronger.

Overall, this is a sweet, intuitive, companion-driven, and incredibly versatile litter with wonderful “jack-of-all-trades” potential. They are also genetically non-shedding, with coats expected to fade as they mature.

Janelle Pink

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Janelle Pink is a gentle, tolerant, easygoing, sweet, cuddly, and social puppy with a naturally affectionate, companion-oriented temperament. She may need a brief moment to take in a brand-new situation, but once she becomes comfortable, she settles beautifully and shows a very sweet, gentle, and balanced personality.

She has a natural people preference and very good human engagement, enjoying connection and interaction while still maintaining a healthy degree of independence. Her cuddly nature adds an especially affectionate quality to that people focus. She wants to connect with her person and has a lovely foundation for developing into an intuitive, relationship-driven companion as that bond continues to grow.

She is also very tolerant with handling. She can initially carry a little tension while determining what is happening, but remains gentle and receptive rather than resistant. Once adjusted, she becomes increasingly comfortable with that close interaction.

Her energy is a true textbook mid level, giving her a wonderful balance for everyday companionship. She has enough social interest and playfulness to enjoy being actively involved with her family while maintaining an easygoing, manageable overall presentation. She should adapt beautifully to nearly any home once given that brief opportunity to settle into something new.

Janelle Pink shows good early therapy and emotional-support potential. Her strong engagement, people preference, affection, tolerance, gentle nature, and balanced energy provide a promising foundation. Her evaluation specifically notes that continued confidence development has the potential to bring even more out of her.

- Physical Evaluation:

Puppy has a mild underbite. This is very minor and will likely correct as she continues to grow. It will not affect daily life or cause any discomfort and is purely cosmetic. This has been cleared by our vet.

Janelle Red

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Janelle Red is a gentle, tolerant, easygoing, curious, and social puppy with a sweet, balanced overall temperament. She may need a brief moment to become completely comfortable in something unfamiliar, but once she understands her surroundings, she settles in beautifully and becomes a very sweet, connected companion.

She shows a natural preference toward her people and very good human engagement. She enjoys being connected and involved without being excessively dependent, giving her a lovely middle ground between companionship and independence. Her awareness of people, responsiveness to interaction, and gentle social nature provide a strong foundation for developing into an intuitive, relationship-oriented companion.

She is very tolerant with handling, remaining gentle and receptive even though she may initially carry a little tension. That slight tension fits with her tendency to need a moment to settle rather than indicating discomfort with people or handling.

Her energy is a textbook mid level through and through. She offers a wonderful balance of curiosity, sociability, interaction, and everyday manageability and should transition well into nearly any home environment once allowed a brief opportunity to become comfortable.

Janelle Red shows good early therapy and emotional-support potential. Her human engagement, tolerance, people preference, gentle nature, and balanced energy provide a promising foundation, with continued confidence-building having the potential to bring those qualities forward even more.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Janelle x Maxwell — Parent Overview

Janelle is an outgoing, affectionate, sweet, and incredibly engaging girl who embodies everything we strive for in a Smeraglia Teddybear F1 Goldendoodle. From her beautiful look and exceptional temperament to her service potential and genetically non-shedding coat, she truly is the complete package—and she carries herself like she knows it. Janelle has a wonderful balance of confidence, trainability, and people-focused affection that makes her an outstanding representative of our program.

Breed: F1 Goldendoodle

Weight: 62lbs

Jamison is remarkably similar in all the best ways. He is sweet, affectionate, goofy, playful, and highly engaging, with a deep love for being with his people. Maxwell enjoys just about any activity as long as he gets to share it with someone he loves, and he isn't shy about expressing exactly how he feels when left out. His cheerful personality, devotion to his family, and playful spirit make him an exceptional companion.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 12lbs

Together, Janelle and Maxwell are expected to produce puppies that are every bit as wonderful as their parents. We anticipate sweet, engaging, affectionate, and outgoing puppies with excellent potential for service work and a natural desire to connect with their people. This litter should have balanced, mid-level energy that rises with interaction while remaining easy to settle, making them outstanding companions for families looking for a true partner in everyday life. As an added bonus, these puppies are expected to be genetically non-shedding, making them an excellent choice for families seeking both an incredible temperament and an allergy-friendly coat.
