

Kassandra Boy Temperament Assessment

Date of Birth: 7/31/2026

Kassandra Litter Temperament Overview:

The Kassandra litter is an exceptionally gentle, affectionate, balanced, personable, and people-centered group, beautifully reflecting the qualities that have made this pairing so loved. Across their individual evaluations, we consistently see puppies who are respectful, tolerant, engaging, and naturally responsive to human connection, with several showing especially exciting foundations for continued working development.

Confidence presents individually throughout the litter, and that distinction is important for thoughtful matching. Some puppies are naturally comfortable and confident in something new, while others need additional time to observe, process, and settle before their personalities fully emerge. What is particularly meaningful is that even the puppies who remained unsure during testing continued to demonstrate gentleness, tolerance, and respectful behavior rather than losing those core temperament qualities.

Energy throughout the litter centers around a mid level. Some remain consistently mid, while others either calm through handling or become somewhat more animated through interaction. This gives the litter a beautiful balance of companionship and playfulness while preserving the affectionate, people-oriented nature that is so characteristic of Kassandra and Archie.

There are also exceptional foundational qualities for service and therapy development within this litter. Several puppies individually demonstrated great early working potential through their combination of human engagement, handling tolerance, balanced confidence, gentleness, and people orientation, while the puppies who currently need more confidence should be given the opportunity to develop that piece before their future working direction is determined. This allows us to appreciate the strength of the litter as a whole without overlooking the individual temperament of each puppy.

Overall, this is a truly special companion-driven, affectionate, gentle, and beautifully balanced litter. Their individual differences allow us to match each puppy thoughtfully to the right family, while the exceptional loving temperament running throughout the group is unmistakable. Their colors are also expected to intensify as they mature, making this an especially beautiful litter both inside and out.

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Kassandra Blue is an exceptionally well-balanced, gentle, personable, happy, and engaging boy. He showed comfortable confidence without being pushy and has a beautiful natural tendency toward people while still maintaining enough independence to feel balanced. His evaluation really reflects the loving, companion-driven temperament we expect from Kassandra and Archie.

He is very tolerant with handling and naturally engaging with people, making human interaction a clear strength for him. He enjoys connection without presenting as overly dependent, and his combination of gentleness, confidence, tolerance, and engagement creates a very adaptable overall temperament.

His energy is a true mid level through and through—playful and personable without showing an excessive energy level during his evaluation. He was evaluated as appropriate for a wide variety of home environments, giving him wonderful versatility as a companion.

Blue also shows great early potential for therapy work. His natural engagement, people orientation, handling tolerance, balanced confidence, and gentle demeanor give him a genuinely promising foundation for continued development. His Prep School experience will provide additional structure, socialization, training, and opportunities to continue developing these already-strong qualities.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Kassandra x Archie — Parent Overview

Kassandra is the definition of a gentle giant. She is sweet, gentle, and wonderfully outgoing, carrying a calm and affectionate presence. While she will happily romp and play if invited, Kassandra would almost always prefer to cuddle and is happiest when she's doing exactly that. Her thunderous tail wags against the nursery floor are a familiar and joyful welcome to anyone who steps into her room.

Breed: F1B Goldendoodle

Weight: 65lbs

Archie is a chill, affectionate, and engaging boy who shares that same loving disposition. He enjoys playtime like any dog, but he leans much more toward hugs and quiet connection than running laps. Archie is simply an all-around sweet guy with an easygoing, people-oriented nature.

Breed: F1B Schnoodle

Weight: 58lbs

Together, Kassandra and Archie are expected to produce puppies that follow beautifully in their parents' footsteps—loving, affectionate, and highly motivated by interaction. We anticipate mid-level energy puppies who prefer connection over chaos and who will transition easily into a wide variety of home environments, bringing warmth and companionship wherever they go.
