Date of Birth: 8/7/2026

Laken Litter Temperament Overview:

Laken and Rembrandt have produced a litter with a wonderfully gentle, sweet, focused, respectful, and even-keeled foundation. Across the litter, there is a strong theme of puppies who tend to take life in stride once comfortable, with the soft disposition and balanced nature expected from their parents.

Confidence varies between individuals. Some puppies are naturally more immediately confident and social, while several prefer to take a moment to understand a new environment before fully settling in. Importantly, those puppies continued to show sweetness and tolerance while adjusting. Their confidence should continue developing through maturity, thoughtful socialization, and positive experiences.

Energy is remarkably consistent across the litter at a mid level, although some puppies may become a little more expressive as their confidence grows. This gives the litter an overall manageable energy profile, with plenty of room for play, engagement, and everyday family life without an overly intense presentation.

There are many therapy-style foundational qualities throughout this litter, especially gentleness, focus, tolerance, affection, and balanced energy. Individual human engagement and confidence varied during testing, so rather than broadly designating the litter as working candidates, these are qualities worth continuing to watch as each puppy matures.

Overall, these are sweet, balanced companion puppies, with several expected to fit comfortably into a wide range of homes and others better matched to patient, slower-paced families who will allow confidence to develop naturally. Their DNA-clear parentage and expected mix of fading and non-fading coats round out a litter with both lovely temperament and variety.

Laken Blue

- Energy Level: Mid — May Rise with Confidence

- Personality:

Laken Blue is a very focused, gentle, sweet, balanced, and even-keeled boy with a naturally go-with-the-flow disposition. He took a little time to understand the unfamiliar evaluation environment and needed a moment before becoming fully comfortable, giving him a more thoughtful approach to new situations.

Even while he was still adjusting, Blue remained sweet, curious, and tolerant. He carried some tension during handling but continued to accept it appropriately, which speaks nicely to his gentle nature. Because he was still processing the environment, some of his social style was difficult to fully read, but he continued to show sweetness in his interactions.

His energy is currently a textbook mid level, although we may see a little more animation emerge alongside confidence. As he matures, socializes, and gains positive experiences, we expect more of his personality to naturally come forward while maintaining that sweet, even foundation.

Blue will be happiest in a calmer, more predictable home environment where he can take a moment to become comfortable with new situations and experiences. His combination of focus, gentleness, sweetness, curiosity, tolerance, and balanced energy makes him a lovely companion for a family who appreciates his softer, thoughtful nature and will allow his confidence to continue developing naturally

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Laken Green is a personable, engaging, confident, playful, social, and sweet boy with an easygoing and nicely balanced overall temperament. He approaches his environment with comfortable confidence without being pushy and has a fun, curious personality that allows him to participate without needing to be at the center of everything.

Green showed some initial tension during handling, but he remained very tolerant throughout. Socially, he is nicely balanced—comfortable interacting and engaging with people while also maintaining a healthy degree of independence. That gives him a versatile social style without presenting as overly dependent.

His energy is a textbook mid level, giving him enough playfulness and personality to enjoy being involved in everyday life while remaining very manageable. His easygoing nature means he does not require a highly specific lifestyle in order to thrive.

Green should adapt beautifully to most any home environment. His combination of confidence, tolerance, playfulness, social ease, sweetness, and balanced energy makes him a very versatile companion who can comfortably settle into many different family dynamics.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Laken Orange

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Laken Orange is a very focused, gentle, sweet, tolerant, and even-keeled boy with a naturally go-with-the-flow disposition. He needed a brief moment to become comfortable in the unfamiliar evaluation environment, but his overall presentation remained thoughtful, balanced, and curious.

He is very tolerant with handling, which is a particularly lovely strength in this boy. His social style is nicely balanced and somewhat more self-contained—he is sweet with people without requiring constant interaction or attention.

His energy is a textbook mid level, creating a manageable foundation for everyday companionship. As he continues maturing and gaining confidence through positive socialization and experience, we may see additional personality and expression naturally emerge.

Orange will be happiest in a calmer home environment that complements his gentle, easygoing nature and gives him a moment to settle into unfamiliar situations. He has a particularly lovely combination of gentleness, focus, tolerance, sweetness, curiosity, and an even-keeled temperament, making him a wonderful companion for a family who appreciates a softer, go-with-the-flow puppy.

- Physical Evaluation:

Orange currently has one undescended testicle. This is very common at this age and we expect it to descend as he continues to mature. It will not cause pain or affect his daily life. This has been cleared by our vet.

Laken Blue Dot

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Laken Blue Dot is a very focused, gentle, sweet, tolerant, curious, and even-keeled boy with a naturally go-with-the-flow approach to life. He needed a brief moment to understand the unfamiliar evaluation environment before becoming more comfortable, giving him a thoughtful rather than impulsive approach to something new.

He is very tolerant with handling and remained receptive even while processing a new experience. His social style is balanced—he is sweet with people while also being comfortable with a healthy amount of independence and not requiring constant interaction.

His energy is a textbook mid level, giving him a nicely manageable overall presentation. His confidence should continue to strengthen with maturity, socialization, and positive experiences, and we expect more of his personality to naturally come forward as his comfort with the world grows.

Blue Dot will do especially well in a calmer, more easygoing home environment where his thoughtful nature can shine and he is given a moment to become comfortable with something new. His combination of focus, gentleness, sweetness, excellent tolerance, curiosity, and balanced energy makes him a lovely companion for a family looking for a softer, easygoing puppy.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted

Laken x Rembrandt — Parent Overview

Laken is a sweet, charming, and engaging girl with a wonderfully balanced approach to life. She rarely swings too high or too low, instead maintaining an even-keeled temperament that makes her incredibly easy to enjoy. Laken is especially motivated by her people and carries a mid to moderate energy level, bringing a steady combination of affection, engagement, and adaptability.

Breed: F1 Goldendoodle

Weight: 63lbs

Rembrandt is a fan-favorite father in our program thanks to his outgoing, friendly, and loving nature. He is more low-key than many male Poodles, while still maintaining plenty of playful energy and enthusiasm for life. Rembrandt transitions beautifully from activity to handling, settling calmly and comfortably when it is time to slow down.

Breed: Standard Poodle

Weight: 58lbs

Together, Laken and Rembrandt are expected to produce puppies with that same even and balanced approach to life. We anticipate sweet, friendly, engaging, and playful puppies that take new experiences in stride. Their motivations should be nicely balanced between interaction, play, and food, creating versatile and responsive companions. Energy levels are expected to sit comfortably at mid-level, rising slightly with interaction before settling back down, making this litter a wonderful fit for a wide variety of home environments.
