Date of Birth: 8/14/2026

Palmer Litter Temperament Overview:

Palmer and Gunner are both incredibly sweet, affectionate, people-oriented dogs, and that same connection to people comes through beautifully in their puppies. Palmer is endearing and loving, with a thoughtful side when something is brand new; once she knows she is comfortable, her charming personality shines. Gunner is sweet, engaging, and affectionate through and through—while he enjoys running and playing, he will almost always choose cuddles and attention when given the option.

Overall, their puppies are a very gentle, tolerant, confident, and beautifully balanced group. Human connection is a strong theme throughout the litter. They are affectionate babies who naturally lean toward their people and genuinely enjoy attention, handling, and interaction.

A couple of the puppies may take a brief moment to settle into something completely unfamiliar, but this should not be confused with a generally timid temperament. Once they have had a moment to understand their surroundings, they are self-assured, personable, affectionate, and engaged. Energy sits around a balanced mid level across the litter, with some puppies becoming more animated during interaction while others remain especially steady and relaxed.

There are also some wonderful early working prospects in this litter. Several puppies showed particularly strong therapy qualities, while others displayed the confidence, engagement, people focus, and motivation that can provide a promising foundation for service development.

Palmer Blue

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Palmer Blue is a very sweet, gentle, confident, and beautifully balanced boy with an affectionate, people-oriented nature. He was a little unsure at the very beginning of the broader evaluation, but once he had a moment to understand the new environment, his self-assured and personable nature came through.

Blue naturally leans toward his people and showed excellent human engagement and exceptional tolerance with handling. He enjoys connection and affection while remaining calm and receptive, giving him a lovely combination of people focus and emotional steadiness.

His energy is a textbook mid level. He has plenty of room for play, interaction, and everyday adventures, but his natural presentation is balanced rather than overly animated. There is a calmer quality to Blue that makes companionship and closeness feel especially natural for him.

Blue showed great early potential for therapy or ESA development. His gentleness, confidence, strong human engagement, slight people preference, exceptional handling tolerance, and balanced energy provide a particularly promising foundation for therapy-style work.

Blue is adaptable and should do well in a wide variety of homes, especially with a family looking for a sweet, affectionate, connected companion with a naturally balanced and somewhat calmer demeanor.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Palmer Green

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid — Consistent & Balanced

- Personality:

Palmer Green is a sweet, gentle, confident, and well-balanced boy with a very affectionate, people-oriented nature. He was relaxed during his initial handling observation and simply appreciated a brief moment to understand the broader new environment before fully settling in.

Once comfortable, Green is self-assured, personable, and engaged. He naturally leans toward his people, showed excellent human engagement, and was exceptionally tolerant with handling. His combination of affection and composure gives him a particularly lovely presence.

His energy is a textbook mid level, giving him a wonderful balance between enjoying play and interaction and being comfortable during quieter moments. He does not need constant activity to remain content and should transition nicely between participating with his family and simply enjoying their company.

Green showed great early potential for therapy or ESA development. His gentleness, people orientation, strong engagement, exceptional handling tolerance, confidence, and balanced demeanor provide a very promising foundation.

Green is adaptable and should do well in a wide variety of homes. He will be a lovely fit for a family wanting a sweet, affectionate companion who enjoys human connection while maintaining an easy, balanced everyday energy.

• Physical Evaluation:

Green has a small umbilical hernia. This is very common at this age and is not a health concern. It will not affect daily life or cause pain and can be easily corrected at the time of spay or neuter if still present.

POTENTIAL SERVICE CANDIDATE

★ Prep Student: 16-Week S.U.P.E.R. Puppy Program

- Energy Level: Mid — Excites with Interaction

- Personality:

Palmer Orange is an affectionate, confident, outgoing, and highly engaging boy with a wonderful love for human connection. He was incredibly relaxed and easygoing during his initial handling observation, while also showing a fun, animated side once interaction began.

Orange is especially people oriented and showed excellent human engagement. He genuinely loves attention and being involved with his people. His excitement during handling can make him a little wiggly because he enjoys that interaction so much, but underneath that enthusiasm is a gentle, tolerant puppy who is highly motivated by connection.

His baseline energy is mid level and naturally rises with interaction. Orange enjoys having something to participate in and becomes more animated when people engage with him, making play, learning, enrichment, and shared activities wonderful outlets. His people motivation is a particularly meaningful part of his personality.

Orange showed great early potential for service development. His confidence, strong people orientation, excellent human engagement, affection, and natural motivation to gain and maintain connection give him a promising foundation for continued working development. His 16-Week S.U.P.E.R. Puppy Program will provide an extensive head start in channeling those natural qualities into focus, communication, manners, confidence, and foundational skills while continuing to develop his ability to regulate his excitement during interaction.

Orange will be a wonderful match for an engaging home that wants a connected puppy involved in everyday life. He is a fun combination of confidence, affection, playfulness, engagement, and genuine love for his people.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Meet The Parents

Palmer x Gunner — Parent Overview

Palmer is a sweet, endearing, and deeply affectionate girl. She can be a little slow to warm up initially, but once she recognizes that she is in a safe and comfortable space, her wonderful personality shines through. Palmer is incredibly charming, loving, and gentle, becoming the kind of dog that is difficult not to completely fall in love with once she knows and trusts you.

Breed: F1 Schnoodle

Weight: 15lbs

Gunner is a sweet, engaging, and affectionate boy with a wonderful love for his people. He certainly enjoys running and playing at times, but when given the choice, he will almost always choose cuddles and attention over anything else around him. Gunner is an absolute sweetheart through and through, bringing a soft, people-oriented nature to the pairing.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 17lbs

Together, Palmer and Gunner are expected to produce exceptionally sweet, affectionate, and endearing puppies with a natural preference for people and connection. We anticipate gentle puppies that may have a thoughtful side initially but form incredibly strong bonds once comfortable. With both parents placing such a high value on affection and interaction, these puppies should make wonderful companions for homes looking for a loving, connected dog that truly enjoys being close to its people.
