

Rosemary Girls Temperament Assessment

Rosemary Litter Playtime Video

Date of Birth: 8/14/2026

Rosemary Litter Temperament Overview:

The Rosemary litter is a sweet, intelligent, affectionate, and highly people-oriented group. These puppies genuinely enjoy human connection and showed wonderful engagement throughout their evaluations. They are bright babies who notice their people, enjoy being included, and naturally want to participate in what is happening around them.

Across the litter, their energy is best described as a well-balanced mid-to-moderate level. They are not inherently high-energy puppies. When the environment is calm, they are comfortable settling in and enjoying quieter time with their people. When it is time to play, learn, or interact, their energy naturally rises to meet the moment. That ability to move between relaxed companionship and playful engagement is an important part of their overall temperament.

They are also smart puppies with active minds. Their desire for interaction was especially noticeable during the structured temperament evaluation, but seeing them afterward in a more natural environment helped round out that picture. What comes through is a litter that is affectionate, social, connected, and motivated by people. Like puppies this age, they are still developing manners and appropriate ways to communicate their excitement, which is exactly where continued training and maturity come in.

All five showed great early potential for service development. Their intelligence, confidence, human focus, engagement, and desire to connect provide a promising foundation for training. They enjoy having something to do and someone to engage with, making learning a wonderful way to give those bright minds direction.

Overall, Rosemary's puppies offer a beautiful balance of affection, intelligence, playfulness, connection, and everyday settle. Their individual personalities simply bring those shared qualities forward in slightly different ways, allowing us to focus on finding the family whose lifestyle and connection style will complement each puppy best.

Rosemary Pink

POTENTIAL SERVICE CANDIDATE

★ Prep Student: 4-Week Starter Puppy Program

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate — Balanced & Engaging

- Personality:

Rosemary Pink is a sweet, confident, affectionate, and social girl who genuinely enjoys people. She showed a relaxed side during handling along with excellent human engagement, giving her a lovely combination of connection, confidence, and playfulness.

Pink is bright and people motivated. She enjoys interaction and is naturally interested in what her people are doing, which makes attention and engagement especially rewarding for her. She is social, affectionate, and expressive, with an intelligent little mind that enjoys being included.

Her energy is mid to moderate and nicely balanced. Pink is comfortable settling into calmer moments, while her playful side naturally comes out when the environment becomes more interactive. She can happily rise to meet play and activity without needing the household to be constantly busy or entertaining her.

Pink showed great early potential for service development. Her confidence, intelligence, strong people orientation, and excellent engagement are meaningful strengths, particularly for a puppy who enjoys having something to learn and a person to work alongside. Her 4-Week Starter Puppy Program will help begin developing those qualities into focus, communication, manners, and useful foundational skills.

Pink will be a lovely match for a family wanting an affectionate, intelligent, socially connected puppy with balanced energy who can enjoy both engaging activities and the relaxed parts of everyday family life.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Rosemary Red

POTENTIAL SERVICE CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate — Balanced & Affectionate

- Personality:

Rosemary Red is a very sweet, affectionate, confident, and people-oriented girl. She absolutely loves attention and being close to her people, and one of the sweetest things about her is how much she enjoys being held and loved on.

Red is social, playful, and highly engaged with people. She genuinely values connection and naturally wants to participate in whatever is happening around her. She has a bright, interactive personality, but there is also a very loving and cuddly side to her that comes through beautifully when things settle down.

Her energy is a balanced mid-to-moderate level. Red enjoys play and can naturally become more animated when invited into it, but she is equally capable of enjoying affection and calmer time with her people. She isn't a puppy who needs constant activity—her people themselves are a large part of what she finds rewarding.

Red showed great early potential for service development. Her confidence, intelligence, strong human engagement, and natural desire for connection give her a promising foundation for continued training. She enjoys people and attention, which can become a wonderful asset as she learns to channel that focus into purposeful work.

Red will be a beautiful match for a family looking for a loving, smart, connected puppy who enjoys play and participation but also genuinely loves closeness, affection, and simply being with her people.

- Physical Evaluation:

Red has a mild underbite. This is very minor and will likely correct as she continues to grow. It will not affect daily life or cause any discomfort and is purely cosmetic.

Rosemary White

POTENTIAL SERVICE CANDIDATE

★ Prep Student: 4-Week Starter Puppy Program

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate — Well-Balanced & People-Oriented

- Personality:

Rosemary White is a very sweet, affectionate, people-oriented girl with a naturally connected personality. She loves being near her people and tends to stay close by, making companionship and human connection a particularly noticeable part of who she is.

White is intelligent, social, and wonderfully engaged without being overly busy. She likes being included and pays attention to the people around her, but she also has a comfortable, easygoing side that comes through naturally. She enjoys interaction because she genuinely likes people—not because she needs constant stimulation or activity.

Her energy is a well-balanced mid-to-moderate level. White is not a high-energy puppy. She is very comfortable hanging out and settling into a relaxed environment, and when it is time for interaction or play, she participates happily without becoming overly energetic. She has a really nice ability to match the energy of the moment—content to stay close and relax when things are quiet and ready to engage when invited.

White showed great early potential for service development. Her intelligence, strong human engagement, confidence, and natural desire to remain connected to her people give her a beautiful foundation for continued training. She is attentive and people motivated, making learning and working alongside her person especially natural outlets for her.

Her 4-Week Starter Puppy Program will give White a wonderful head start with foundational skills while continuing to build on her natural focus and connection.

White will be a lovely match for a family looking for a sweet, intelligent, closely connected companion with genuinely balanced energy—a puppy who enjoys participating in family life but is just as happy being nearby and enjoying the quieter moments together.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Rosemary Pink Dot

POTENTIAL SERVICE CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate — Balanced & Interactive

- Personality:

Rosemary Pink Dot is a bright, intuitive, affectionate girl with a fun, expressive personality. She is smart, observant, and naturally tuned in to the people around her, with a wonderful curiosity about what is happening and how she can be part of it.

Pink Dot has a big personality and a clever little mind. She enjoys engagement, notices what is going on around her, and likes having opportunities to interact and participate. Her people orientation comes through in her strong engagement and desire to connect, while her intuitive nature gives her a particularly thoughtful, aware quality.

Her energy is a balanced mid-to-moderate level. She can comfortably settle into quieter moments, while naturally becoming more animated when it is time to play or something interesting is happening. Much of what makes Pink Dot feel “busy” in an engaging environment is her intelligence—her brain is working, she is noticing, and she wants to participate—rather than her simply needing constant physical activity.

Pink Dot showed great early potential for service development. Her intelligence, intuition, confidence, excellent human engagement, and desire to connect give her a promising foundation for continued learning. She is the kind of puppy who is likely to really enjoy having something to learn and productive ways to use that smart little mind.

Pink Dot will be a wonderful match for a family looking for a smart, intuitive, connected puppy with plenty of personality and balanced energy—one who enjoys learning and interacting but can also settle comfortably into everyday family life.

- Physical Evaluation:

Pink Dot has a mild underbite. This is very minor and will likely correct as she continues to grow. It will not affect daily life or cause any discomfort and is purely cosmetic.

Rosemary x Sampson — Parent Overview

Rosemary:

Weight: 48lbs

Breed: Standard Poodle

Sampson:

Weight: 48lbs

Breed: F1 Goldendoodle

Together, This is a repeat breeding, giving us the advantage of a real, established temperament assessment from the previous Rosemary litter. That prior litter was confident and self-assured, showing little to no stress when introduced to new people, environments, or situations typically considered challenging. The puppies approached new sights and sounds—including those that could be considered startling—with curiosity and an investigative mindset.

They demonstrated good memory, focus, and age-appropriate problem-solving skills, along with excellent motivation for interaction and solid motivation for food and toys. Socially, they were appropriate and well-mannered with littermates, cats, adult dogs, and people. Mouthiness was minimal, bite inhibition was excellent, and vocalization was rare. Puppies were comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint, often actively seeking out that interaction. No possessive behaviors or red flags were observed.

Together, this pairing has already proven to consistently produce well-balanced, confident, people-oriented puppies that adapt easily and thrive in a wide range of home environments.
