Eden Litter Temperament Overview:

Eden and Rocket are both outgoing, affectionate, playful, engaging, goofy, and highly people-oriented dogs, creating a pairing expected to produce puppies who genuinely want to be part of whatever their families are doing. Eden is cuddly, hilarious, incredibly smart, and always ready to join in, while Rocket brings that same playful, affectionate enthusiasm—whether it is fetch, chase, hide-and-seek, or simply being included.

That personality is showing beautifully in this litter. Overall, the Eden puppies are very affectionate, engaged, kissy, confident, social, playful, silly, and happy. They have strong motivation for interaction and naturally seek connection with their people.

Working potential is a particular strength within this litter. Their motivation, confidence, engagement, and people focus create great early potential for Service and Therapy work, including potential for The Pawtism Project. Individual working suitability will still depend on each puppy's specific temperament and continued development.

The litter generally presents around mid-level energy that becomes more animated with interaction, although there are meaningful individual differences. Some remain consistently mid-level, while others—particularly Green—present with more sustained moderate energy. Overall, these puppies will thrive with families who enjoy an engaging, interactive home life and want their puppy actively involved in the fun.

Eden Blue

POTENTIAL SERVICE + THERAPY + ALERT CANDIDATE

• Energy Level: Mid to Moderate — Excites with Interaction

• Personality:
Eden Blue is a bubbly, happy, playful, affectionate, confident, and exceptionally engaging boy. He was relaxed during his initial handling evaluation and approaches life with tremendous enthusiasm.

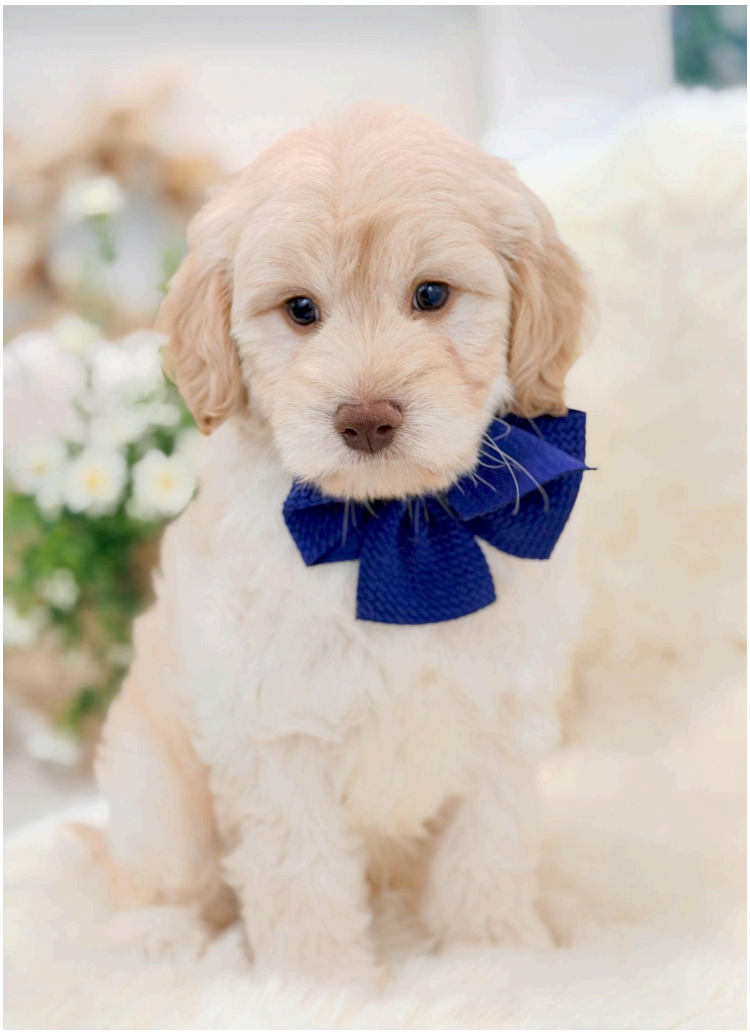

Blue is exceptionally confident and can be assertive about that confidence, which is an important part of his temperament. He is also extremely people-focused and highly motivated by human interaction. He wants to be involved, wants your attention, and is not shy about letting you know it!

He is extremely tolerant of handling but becomes very excited by the interaction itself. His energy sits between mid and moderate and rises noticeably when people become involved, matching his playful and enthusiastic personality.

Blue is a stellar early working candidate. His confidence, intense human engagement, motivation, affection, tolerance, and enthusiasm create excellent potential across Service and Therapy work, including Alert work. His evaluator considered him an excellent candidate for essentially all working applications except mobility work due solely to his tiny projected size, rather than a temperament limitation.

He will thrive in an engaging or working home that appreciates a confident, enthusiastic puppy and can channel his eagerness and intelligence into productive interaction, training, and activity.

• Physical Evaluation:
No health concerns noted.

Eden Green

🎅🐾 Santa's Little Prep Student: 4-Week Doodle Prep School
Prep School Dates: Nov 12th - Dec 10th 2026 (4wk)

POTENTIAL SERVICE + THERAPY CANDIDATE

• Energy Level: Moderate — Through & Through

• Personality:
Eden Green is a very engaged, playful, bouncy, happy, confident, and personable boy who approaches life with a tremendous amount of enthusiasm. He is sweet and social but definitely one of the more energetic personalities within this litter.

Green is exceptionally confident and can be assertive or pushy in that confidence. He has a slight people-oriented preference and is very engaging with his humans. He is extremely tolerant of handling, although he becomes highly excited during hands-on interaction.

Unlike puppies in the litter whose baseline sits closer to mid and rises during interaction, Green's evaluation places him at a true moderate energy level throughout. He is excited about nearly everything and will benefit from a home that genuinely enjoys that playful, bouncy enthusiasm rather than expecting a quieter lifestyle.

Green showed incredible early working potential, with strong confidence, engagement, tolerance, motivation, and enthusiasm supporting continued Service and Therapy development. His working suitability will continue to become clearer with training and maturity.

His ideal match is specifically described as a "rough and tumble" style of home—an engaging family that wants an energetic, playful puppy involved in the action and can provide productive outlets for his enthusiasm.

His 4-Week Doodle Prep School will give him additional time to build training, manners, socialization, and productive ways to channel that naturally enthusiastic personality.

• Physical Evaluation:
No health concerns noted.
