Jamie Litter Temperament Overview:

Jamie and Cosmo are both wonderful examples of the classic Smeraglia temperament. Cosmo brings many of those same traits with an especially silly, playful side. He is outgoing, affectionate, engaging, fun, and eager to be involved with his people.

Their puppies are following beautifully in those footsteps. Overall, this litter is very confident, social, playful, personable, silly, happy, and curious. They enjoy human interaction, show strong engagement, and combine that people focus with the affectionate, easy-to-connect-with personality expected from this pairing.

All of the puppies evaluated showed good early potential for Therapy work, with several also showing broader Service potential. They are consistently tolerant of handling, strongly people-oriented, and naturally engaging.

Energy is remarkably consistent across the litter. They fall primarily within the mid to mid-moderate range, with the boys tending toward a slightly more animated mid-to-moderate presentation and the girls maintaining a more textbook mid level. Overall, these puppies should transition beautifully into a wide variety of family lifestyles, particularly homes that want an affectionate, interactive puppy who is genuinely included in everyday life.
