They enjoy human interaction, show strong engagement, and combine that people focus with the affectionate, easy-to-connect-with personality expected from this pairing.

All of the puppies evaluated showed good early potential for Therapy work, with several also showing broader Service potential. They are consistently tolerant of handling, strongly people-oriented, and naturally engaging.

Energy is remarkably consistent across the litter. They fall primarily within the mid to mid-moderate range, with the boys tending toward a slightly more animated mid-to-moderate presentation and the girls maintaining a more textbook mid level.
