Lillian Girls Temperament Assessment

Lillian Litter Play Video

Date of Birth: 9/7/2026

Lillian Litter Temperament Overview:

Lillian and Hendrix produced a very classic little Schnoodle group. Lillian brings a wonderfully sweet, gentle, deeply affectionate disposition, while Hendrix brings an outgoing, bubbly, confident personality. Together, the pairing appears to have threaded that needle beautifully, producing puppies who are affectionate and people-oriented while also being confident and socially engaging.

Overall, this litter is respectful, bubbly, happy, engaged, sweet, personable, affectionate, and tolerant. They are strongly people-focused and naturally motivated to interact, with excellent engagement and a desire to gain and maintain their person's attention.

All three puppies fall at a mid energy level that rises with excitement and interaction. They are tolerant of handling but can become wiggly when excited, which fits well with their social, enthusiastic personalities.

Working potential is a notable strength across the entire litter. All three showed great early potential for Service and Therapy work, supported by their confidence, strong human engagement, affectionate nature, curiosity, and people focus. They should do especially well in engaging homes that enjoy having their puppy actively involved in everyday life.

Lillian Pink

POTENTIAL SERVICE + THERAPY CANDIDATE

• Energy Level: Mid — Excites with Interaction

• Personality:
Lillian Pink is an itty-bitty, affectionate, engaging, happy, social, curious, and personable girl. Despite her exceptionally tiny size, she presented relaxed during her initial handling evaluation and showed the same confident, people-oriented temperament seen throughout the litter.

Pink is confident without being pushy and is strongly focused on her people. She shows great human engagement and actively works to gain and maintain attention. She is tolerant of handling, although she can become wiggly when excited by the interaction.

Her baseline energy is mid level and rises with excitement and engagement. She should do especially well with an interactive family that enjoys a close relationship with their puppy and wants a little companion who genuinely enjoys being involved.

Pink showed great early potential for Service and Therapy work, with strong people focus, confidence, engagement, affection, curiosity, and sociability supporting that potential. Her remarkably small size is also noteworthy within this already Extra Small Schnoodle litter.

• Physical Evaluation:
No health concerns noted. Pink is trending particularly small.

🧬 Meet The Proud Parents!

Meet the Parents

Lillian x Hendrix — Parent Overview

Lillian is a very sweet, gentle, and incredibly affectionate girl. She may need a moment to warm up when meeting someone new, but once she feels comfortable, she completely melts into her people. Lillian is happiest curled up in your lap and would gladly stay right by your side all day. She has a wonderfully soft disposition and forms deep, affectionate connections once she knows she is safe.

Breed: Mini Poodle
Weight: 9.7lbs

Hendrix brings a completely different kind of energy to the pairing. He is outgoing, bubbly, hilarious, and perfectly happy being the life of every room he enters. Hendrix has never met a stranger and would probably challenge anyone who suggested he wasn't the center of the party. Bashful simply isn't in his vocabulary, and we wouldn't dream of asking him to add it.

Breed: F1B Schnoodle
Weight: 7lbs

Together, Lillian and Hendrix are expected to produce puppies that beautifully thread the needle between their parents. We anticipate puppies with all of Lillian's sweetness, gentleness, and affectionate nature, paired with Hendrix's outgoing confidence and enthusiasm for life. Expect mid-level energy that rises with interaction and puppies that are personable, engaging, loving, and adaptable, making them wonderful additions to most any home.