Date of Birth: July 31st, 2026

Maggie Litter Temperament Overview:

Maggie and Timber are a wonderful pairing of sweet, affectionate, easygoing Retriever temperaments. Maggie is a happy, friendly girl who truly seems to take life one step at a time—very little phases her, and she moves through the world at her own relaxed pace. Timber brings the classic personable, playful, and silly Retriever personality, but with a naturally lower-key demeanor than you might typically expect.

Their puppies carry that combination beautifully. Overall, this litter is personable, confident, engaging, sweet, affectionate, and wonderfully easygoing. They have that unmistakable Retriever charm and silliness, are very food motivated, and genuinely enjoy interacting with their people.

Energy trends toward the low-to-mid range overall, with individual variation. Some puppies are naturally more relaxed and consistent, while others become more animated when play or human interaction begins. Even with those differences, this is not an overly energetic litter—their overall presentation is balanced, manageable, and lower-key.

These puppies also have some very nice early working potential, with confidence, human engagement, affection, and people motivation providing promising foundations for continued service or therapy development. For families looking for that big, lovable Purebred English Retriever personality in a sweeter, more easygoing package, this litter is a beautiful representation of exactly that.

Maggie Blue

POTENTIAL SERVICE + THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid — Excites with Interaction

- Personality:

Maggie Blue is a confident, personable, playful, and incredibly people-oriented boy with all of those classic happy Retriever qualities. He is bubbly, silly, engaging, and naturally enthusiastic about interacting with the people around him.

Blue has a strong preference for his people and showed great human engagement throughout his evaluation. He can be enthusiastic and wiggly during handling because he is genuinely excited about the interaction, but he remains receptive and enjoys being involved. He is a confident puppy with a bigger personality who is not shy about seeking connection and attention.

His baseline energy is mid level and rises with interaction. Blue is playful and happy when there is something fun happening, but an important part of his temperament is that he can also be content independently when his people are occupied. This gives him a nice balance between being highly connected and engaging without needing constant interaction.

Blue showed very good early potential for service and therapy development. His confidence, strong people orientation, human engagement, happy disposition, and motivation to connect provide a promising foundation. As he matures, continued training will help channel some of his youthful enthusiasm into even greater focus and regulation.

Blue will do especially well in an engaging home that enjoys a puppy who wants to participate in everyday life. He is a wonderfully fun combination of confidence, affection, playfulness, connection, and classic Retriever silliness.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.

Maggie Green

Maggie Green

POTENTIAL SERVICE + THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Low to Mid — Consistent & Easygoing

- Personality:

Maggie Green is a sweet, confident, personable, and beautifully balanced boy with an easygoing Retriever personality. He is engaging and affectionate with his people while maintaining a naturally relaxed approach to everyday life.

Green showed great human engagement and very good tolerance with handling. He enjoys interaction and connection without being overly dependent on it, displaying a particularly nice balance between people orientation and independence. His confidence is equally balanced—self-assured without being pushy.

His low-to-mid energy is steady and consistent, making him one of those puppies who can happily participate in life with his family without needing a highly active environment to feel fulfilled. He still has the personable, silly, food-motivated Retriever qualities expected from this breeding, but they come packaged in a lower-key overall demeanor.

Green showed very good early potential for service and therapy development. His confidence, excellent handling tolerance, strong human engagement, balanced independence, and naturally manageable energy provide a promising foundation for continued development.

Green will be especially well suited to a calmer, easygoing home environment that complements his naturally lower-key personality. He is a lovely choice for someone wanting a connected, affectionate companion with plenty of personality while still having a naturally relaxed and manageable energy level.

- Physical Evaluation:

No health concerns noted.
