Date of Birth: 8/28/2026

Mardi Litter Temperament Overview:

Mardi and Wasabi bring together two fun, affectionate, highly social personalities. Mardi is a sweet, goofy girl who absolutely loves being included—whether that means playing, cuddling, romping around, getting a bath, or simply soaking up attention. Wasabi shares that love of connection with an especially happy-go-lucky, social nature. He approaches life like everyone he meets is already his friend.

Their puppies are a personable, engaging, curious, playful, alert, and attentive group. Mardi's history can produce puppies who appreciate a little extra time to feel completely comfortable in something unfamiliar, while Wasabi brings a wonderfully outgoing, social influence. In this litter, several puppies do need a moment to take in a brand-new situation, but once settled, their happy, affectionate, playful, and engaging personalities come forward.

There is some variation in energy from puppy to puppy, generally ranging from mid to mid-to-moderate, with energy and animation often increasing as confidence and interaction build. They are people-oriented puppies with nice engagement and tolerance, while still benefiting from families who will respect their boundaries and allow them to acclimate naturally rather than rushing them.

This pairing is known not only for producing stunning puppies, but consistently wonderful temperaments and intelligence. Overall, these puppies should fit beautifully into a variety of homes that will give them an appropriate adjustment period and continue building on their naturally social, curious, and engaging foundations.

Meet The Parents

Mardi x Wasabi — Parent Overview

Mardi is a sweet, goofy, and affectionate girl who absolutely loves attention and is never shy about asking for it. She isn't particularly concerned with how that attention comes either. Whether she's playing, cuddling, romping around, getting a bath, or joining in on something entirely different, Mardi is happiest when she gets to be included. She is a fun, people-oriented girl with plenty of personality and a genuine love for interaction.

Breed: F1B Goldendoodle

Weight: 32lbs

Wasabi is not all that different. He is affectionate, fun, incredibly social, and one of those happy-go-lucky dogs who seems to believe every living creature is his friend. Even if someone hasn't quite decided they're friends yet, Wasabi certainly has. He approaches life with an open, joyful attitude and simply loves people, animals, and whatever adventure comes his way.

Breed: F1 Schnoodle

Weight: 15.5lbs

Together, Mardi and Wasabi are expected to produce playful, outgoing, self-assured, and beautiful puppies with a strong desire to engage with the world around them. Mardi has historically produced some puppies that can be more cautious or fearful in new situations, so Wasabi was intentionally selected for his exceptionally social, confident, and happy-go-lucky temperament. We hope his natural confidence will complement Mardi beautifully and produce puppies with her affectionate, playful personality alongside a more self-assured approach to new people, environments, and experiences.
