Palmer x Gunner — Parent Overview

Palmer is a sweet, endearing, and deeply affectionate girl. She can be a little slow to warm up initially, but once she recognizes that she is in a safe and comfortable space, her wonderful personality shines through. Palmer is incredibly charming, loving, and gentle, becoming the kind of dog that is difficult not to completely fall in love with once she knows and trusts you.

Breed: F1 Schnoodle

Weight: 15lbs

Gunner is a sweet, engaging, and affectionate boy with a wonderful love for his people. He certainly enjoys running and playing at times, but when given the choice, he will almost always choose cuddles and attention over anything else around him. Gunner is an absolute sweetheart through and through, bringing a soft, people-oriented nature to the pairing.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 17lbs

Together, Palmer and Gunner are expected to produce exceptionally sweet, affectionate, and endearing puppies with a natural preference for people and connection. We anticipate gentle puppies that may have a thoughtful side initially but form incredibly strong bonds once comfortable. With both parents placing such a high value on affection and interaction, these puppies should make wonderful companions for homes looking for a loving, connected dog that truly enjoys being close to its people.
