Meet the Parents

Mango x Orion — Parent Overview

Mango is a bubbly, confident, and playful girl with a personality that is truly larger than life. She is energetic, spunky, and overflowing with enthusiasm, making her impossible to overlook and even harder to forget. Mango brings excitement and plenty of entertainment to everything she does, but beneath all that playful energy is an incredibly affectionate side. Despite her lively personality, there may not be another dog who loves belly rubs quite as much as Mango. She is a wonderful combination of playful enthusiasm and irresistible sweetness.

Breed: F2 Goldendoodle
Weight: 46lbs

Orion is a sweet, affectionate, engaging, and outgoing boy with an incredible love for people. He works about as hard as any dog could to earn and maintain your attention, putting his whole heart into every interaction. Orion is playful, cuddly, energetic, and intelligent, combining all of those wonderful qualities in his pursuit of affection and connection. His enthusiasm for life and genuine desire to be close to his people make him an exceptionally endearing companion.

Breed: Mini Poodle
Weight: 12lbs

Together, Mango and Orion are expected to produce puppies that are every bit as wonderful and full of personality as their parents. We anticipate playful, outgoing, confident, and highly engaging puppies with an infectious enthusiasm for life and a natural love for just about everything they encounter. These puppies should be personable, affectionate, and eager to participate in whatever their people are doing. With mid to moderate energy levels and a wonderful combination of intelligence, playfulness, and affection, this litter should produce exceptional companions for engaging homes looking for a fun-loving, interactive, and deeply connected addition to the family.
