Meet the Parents

Sutton x Voodoo — Parent Overview

Sutton is an outgoing, bubbly, and incredibly engaging girl with a wonderfully versatile personality. She has a fun, playful disposition and is always happy to participate in whatever adventure comes her way, but she settles beautifully for handling and genuinely prefers cuddling and affection when given the choice. Sutton is a true jack-of-all-trades, bringing together enthusiasm, sweetness, and a natural ability to transition between playtime and quiet moments with her people.

Breed: F1B Goldendoodle
Weight: 55.5lbs

Voodoo shares a very similar disposition. He is sweet, affectionate, fun, and incredibly engaging, with a genuine love for everything life has to offer. Whether he is running, playing, cuddling, or simply spending time with his people, Voodoo approaches every moment with a happy, easygoing spirit. He is an all-around wonderful boy whose affectionate nature and playful personality make him an absolute joy to be around.

Breed: Standard Poodle
Weight: 69lbs

Together, Sutton and Voodoo are expected to produce puppies that are every bit as wonderful and well-rounded as their parents. We anticipate sweet, outgoing, engaging, personable, and affectionate puppies that are happy to participate in just about anything as long as they can be included with their people. Energy levels are expected to range from mid to mid-moderate, remaining fairly consistent and balanced across different situations. With their adaptable personalities, strong people focus, and natural balance between playfulness and affection, this litter should produce exceptional companions that will be wonderful fits for a wide variety of home environments.
